

TORTILLA YONKERS presents:

STORY

Hello, my name is JENNY. I came to Spain for love from overseas. Specifically to Cantabria where my hubby, CHARLES, lives.

Once here I found my second love, the potato omelette from BELÉN, the mother of our friend JOSEPH. It's so good I would eat a truckload of omelettes.

This is the story of an adventure that happened precisely to JOSEPH, CHARLES and me last summer in which BELÉN's omelette has a lot to do with the amazing events that we would experience.

One sunny summer afternoon we decided to go to the beach for a swim. When we arrived, JOSEPH and I were going straight to the water when my hubby told us:

- I do not bathe, I stay on these rocks playing chess with my mobile phone.
- But what are you saying? You are crazy! -I said.
- Come here now! -JOSEPH said
- I don't feel like going with you.
You guys go ahead.

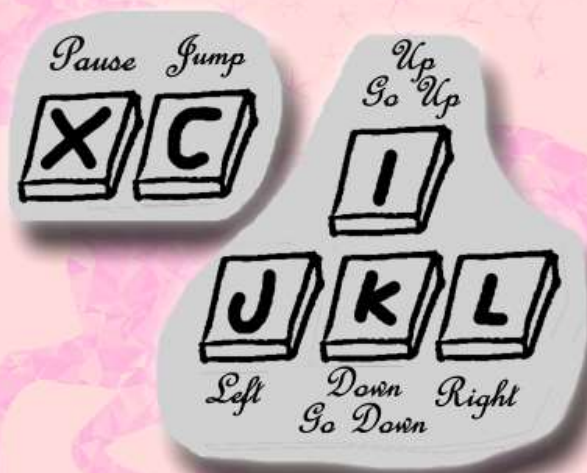

So we went and took a bath but when we returned, CHARLES was gone. We looked for him everywhere and nothing, until JOSEPH from above some rocks told me: ...

(The game starts!)
